

Annual Costs: Fall 2016

The components of the annual budget include direct and indirect expenses. Direct expenses are paid directly to the College for tuition and fees. Other direct costs are for the purchase of books and supplies. Indirect costs are expenses related to attending college, such as transportation, personal costs, and room/board.

Estimated expenses for the dependent student living at home with parents based on full-time attendance fall and spring semesters:

Tuition.....	$4,330
Fees	826
Books and Supplies.....	1,200
Room and Board.....	3,000
Transportation.....	1,700
Personal.....	1,400
Loan Fees.....	105
Total.....	$12,561

Estimated expenses for all other students (dependent students living away from parents and independent students):

Tuition.....	$4,330
Fees.....	826
Books and Supplies.....	1,200
Room and Board.....	6,000
Transportation.....	1,700
Personal.....	1,400
Loan Fees.....	105
Total	$15,561

Note: These figures are subject to change. Budgets may vary depending on who students reside with, their receiving shelter assistance from an outside agency, or not having to pay rent.